The message of congratulations coming soon after the appointment of PM Fiala, reflects India's resolve to continue working closely with the Czech Republic on bilateral as well as multilateral issues.

India's relations with former Czechoslovakia and with Czech Republic, have always been warm and friendly, with a long history. Our bilateral ties have continued to flourish, encompassing all aspects of relations in the political, defence, economic, cultural and people to people ties. The relations have only grown stronger with our shared sense of solidarity and spirit of cooperation manifest during the ongoing covid pandemic in recent times. India shall continue to work together with the new Government led by His Excellency Fiala in furthering our multifaceted bilateral cooperation.
